

THE PURPLE HEARTBEAT
NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS' NEWSLETTER

NATIONAL ADJUTANT'S CALL . . .

Dear Patriots,

Purple Heart Day. Purple Heart Day is Sunday, August 7, 2011 and Chapters should be thinking about ways to honor that day with the public as well as to promote awareness of MOPH. Some suggested activities include: fund raising with Viola sales at local stores, malls and military bases; having some of your Patriots interviewed by local media on their military experiences and Chapter community and VA efforts; speaking to student assemblies at local schools, and mounting MOPH displays where appropriate. The themes of all activities should be: honoring the day, recruitment, and information about MOPH. Be sure to order supporting materials ASAP.

Signing on to the MOPH Website. We get a steady stream of calls from members having trouble signing onto the website and easily 80 percent of the calls concern forgotten user names or passwords. Your user name is your first initial and last name (Robert Black will be "rblack") and you can then click on "Did you forget your password," click on "Send me a new password," and you'll receive the new one in your email.

Pop-Up Briefcase Displays. Your summer recruiting and outreach efforts might require replacement or an upgrade to your displays. MOPH HQ Supply (Jennifer) has dozens of these nifty briefcase-size displays @ $250 plus shipping costs.

New DVA Family Caregiver Program. Post 9/11 veterans and families may download applications by going to www.caregiver.va.gov. Caregiver Support Coordinators are stationed at every VA Medical Center or you can dial toll-free 1-877-222-8387.

DVA Weighs In On Camp Lejeune NC Water Contamination Issue. If you were stationed at CJ, NC during the period 1957-1987, contact your nearest MOPH NSO on the possibility of filing a claim. For more details, see page 5 for an article by NSO Casey Matuszak.

National Convention Roll Call and Voting Precedence. Honors go to Region II to lead off all Roll Calls and Convention voting. On Saturday, August 13, Region and National Officer voting will commence with Region Commander nominations/Region voting (R2,R3 . . . R1), then other National Officer Nominations and voting (R2 - Illinois, Indiana . . . Wisconsin, R3 - Alaska . . . Wyoming, etc.)

Yours in Patriotism,
Jack Leonard

PHYSICAL DISABILITY BOARD OF REVIEW (PDBR)

In perhaps the most significant action to date concerning benefits for wounded veterans, DoD established the PDBR to reassess the combined disability ratings of veterans who were medically separated from their respective services between 11 September 2001 and 31 December 2009.

Eligibility. Only veterans with a combined disability rating of 20 percent or less and who did not otherwise retire are eligible to apply for this reassessment.

PDBR Action. The PDBR will adjudicate and recommend a final disability rating percentage that will be forwarded to a Designated Decision Authority within each Military Department for a final determination.

Who Can Request. This review can be requested by the former service member, surviving spouse, next of kin or legal representative.

Time Limits. At the present, there is no time limit or cut off date to apply.

Submit Request. You must submit your request on DD Form 294, Application for Review by the Physical Disability Board of Review (FDBR) of the Rating Awarded Accompanying a Medical Separation From the Armed Forces of the United States. You can get a fill-able form at www.dtic.mil/whs/directives/infomgt/forms/eforms/dd0294.pdf.

Support of Request. Applicants can submit statements, briefs, medical records, or affidavits in support of their application. Unless requested, you don't need to submit records already on file.

Board of Corrections or PDBR? There's a chart on page 3 of the DD-294 that explains the difference between a Board for Correction of Military (or Naval) Records (BCMR/BCNR) review and a PDBR Review and how they relate to each other. Before submitting an application to the PDBR, you might want to confer with your nearest MOPH National Service Officer to ensure your best option.

Effect on Current Rating. Can the PDBR lower your current rating? No.

Documents only. There is no provision for a personal appearance.

Final Decision. The PDBR makes a recommendation on your case to your Service Secretary who makes the final decision.

Appeal. There are no provisions for appeal of the Secretary's decision. However, previously denied BCMR/BCNR appeals may be reconsidered when relevant newly discovered evidence (not previously available) is presented.

Basic Directive. For details on the entire process, see DoD Instruction 6040.44 available at www.dtic.mil/whs/directives/corres/pdf/604044p.pdf.

HOMES FOR OUR TROOPS

HFOT is a national non-profit non-partisan 501(c)(3) organization founded in 2004 that builds homes for the most severely combat wounded service members. Most of their projects are building new homes, but in rare cases, they renovate an existing home, making the special modifications needed to accommodate particular disabilities. HFOT was founded by John Gonsalves, a construction supervisor from Raynham, MA. Reacting to news about a soldier who lost both legs in Iraq, he wanted to get involved with an organization already building homes for wounded veterans, but couldn't find one. Realizing that the severely wounded needed specially designed homes, he set out to build such houses as well as retrofit existing homes to meet their needs. Funding comes from individuals, foundations and affluent well-known personalities. Corporate sponsors provide vital building materials.

As of December 2009, HFOT had built 50 homes and 33 others were under construction, aiming at a total of 100 by the end of 2011. And they want to build another 100 over the next few years. Veterans do not pay anything for the homes. Eligible veterans may receive a VA Specially Adapted Housing Grant of up to $63,780; HFOT then covers all costs above the grant. For more information and guidelines on contributions, go to www.homesforourtroops.org.

CAMP LEJEUNE WATER SUPPLY UPDATE

VA just published a Training Letter on processing claims from those individuals exposed to chemicals in Camp Lejeune's water supply. Though contamination of the water supply ended by 1985, VA is considering anyone who was at the base from 1957 to 1987 exposed to the contamination. The main contaminants were trichloroethylene (TCE), a metal degreaser, and perchloroethylene (PCE), a dry cleaning agent. Also found were Benzene and vinyl chloride.

Conditions: Fourteen disease conditions were identified as having limited/suggestive evidence of an association with TCE, PCE, or a solvent mixture exposure. They include:

- | | | |
|-------------------------|---|----------------|
| Esophageal cancer | Lung Cancer | Breast cancer |
| Bladder cancer | Kidney Cancer | Adult leukemia |
| Multiple myeloma | Myelodysplastic syndromes | Renal toxicity |
| Hepatic steatosis | Female infertility | Scleroderma |
| Neurobehavioral effects | Miscarriage, with exposure during pregnancy | |

Claims will be processed by the Louisville Regional Office. Exposure does not presume service connection for a condition. There must be a medical opinion linking the condition to service.

For more information, contact your local MOPH National Service Officer who is aware of this issue. Additional information can be found at the US Marine Corps Site for Camp Lejeune Contaminated Water (<https://clnr.hqi.usmc.mil/clwater/index.html>)

PURPLE HEART RIDERS

Up in New Hampshire, Patriot Al (Scout) Grow, Commander of Chapter 804 in Nashua, is also National President of the Purple Heart Riders, which he founded, a family oriented motorcycle riding association, NOT a MOPH motorcycle club. Membership in the PH Riders is open to all veterans who were wounded in battle and awarded the Purple Heart Medal. Many of the Riders, like Al, are also members of MOPH, but it is not required. One major motivation for Al to start the Riders was the desire to bring in veterans of any age who like to ride, taking a page from the VFW and American Legion who started riding groups and saw their membership take off. Al commented that "we have brought new Life Members into the Order," veterans from other states are joining the Riders, its website is getting numerous hits, and they receive membership inquiries everyday.

For membership in the PH Riders, veterans must have been wounded in action and awarded the Purple Heart Medal and own a motorcycle of at least 400cc. (For those veterans who cannot ride a motorcycle or do not own one due to medical reasons, they still welcome you to join.) Go to www.purpleheartriders.us for additional information.

YOUR INPUT NEEDED!! The MOPH Supply Room currently offers an assortment of items for use in Americanism programs and recruiting. It's been the same inventory for years and we thought you might have some comments on what you like, don't like and perhaps suggestions for some new items. We can look into any idea for a pamphlet, windshield notice, or handout that would help. Send your input to: jleonard@purpleheart.org.

WAR BIRDS

The Boeing B-29 Superfortress was one of the largest aircraft in WW II, and very advanced for its time with a pressurized cabin, electronic fire-control system and remote-controlled machine gun turrets. It was the primary aircraft in the firebombing campaign against Japan in the final months of the war and carried the atomic bombs that destroyed Hiroshima and Nagasaki, effectively ending the war. It was used primarily in the Pacific, seeing only rare service over Europe. But it did see action from 1950 to 1953 in Korea, flying normal strategic day missions against North Korean industrial targets and later interdicting supply routes. Once Soviet MIG-15 fighters appeared, however, the B-29 missions were restricted. A total of 3,970 B-29s were built between 1943 and 1946. Enola Gay is the most famous B-29, having dropped its atomic bomb on Hiroshima. You can see the plane in Smithsonian's Air Museum near Dulles in DC.

"I divide my officers into four groups - clever, diligent, stupid and lazy. Each officer possesses at least two of these qualities. Some are clever and diligent - their place is the General Staff. The next lot are stupid and lazy - they make up 90 percent of every army and are suited to routine duties. Anyone who is both clever and lazy is fit for the highest leadership duties because he possesses the intellectual clarity and the composure necessary for difficult decisions. One must beware of anyone who is stupid and diligent—he must not be entrusted with any responsibility because he will always cause mischief." (Attributed to German General Kurt von Hammerstein–Equord, anti-NAZI member of General Staff, c 1933)
